Republican National Convention Will Make Presidential Nomination Friday.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., June 8.— Colonel Theodore Rossevelt will go to Chicago if "the Republican con-vention desires me to address it." This he amounced today in a reply made to the invitation he received last night from Senator William B. Jackson, of Maryland, asking him to come to Chicago.

last night from Senator William B. Jackson, of Maryland, asking him to come to Chicago.

The colonel declared in his answer that he hoped both the Republicans and Progressives who. if elected, would place this nation where it belongs by making it true to itself and therefore true to all mankind." To Nominate Friday.

The Republican nomination for president probably will be made in the Collseum tomorrow, but it is not expected the convention will adjourn before Saturday. Ostensibly the season will be proloned to give more deliberate consideration than is usual to a nomination for second place, but the real purpose, it is believed, is to avoid adjournment before the Progressive convention has acted.

Garrison Abandons Fort after It is Reduced to a Heap of Ruins.

PARIS, June 8.—Heavy fighting conties in the vicinity of Fort Vaux. The war office report of today says French troops still occupy the outskirts of the fort as well as the trenches to the right and left of the works.

The loss of the fort itself, of which an intimation was given in last night's report, is conceded. The announce-ment says the fort was abandoned by the garrison after it had been reduced to a heap of ruins by an incessant bombardment of seven days. German attacks on the adjacent positions have been unsuccessful. West of the Merise intermittent cannonading was carried
